MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Draft of memorandum in re difficulty with Psychological Warfare, D/A.

1. Acting DD(P) called at 1040 hours this morning and notified that DCI requires a memorandum which will outline the difficulties encountered by this office as a result of the establishment of the Psychological Warfare Division, D/A. The memorandum should discuss the nature of the problem and cite examples to illustrate the current difficulties.

2. Acting DD(P) mentioned the following examples which came to his mind that might be included in the memorandum required by DCI:

a. The assertion by General McClure's office that they are responsible for certain PW activities;

b. The demand made by General McClure on G-2 for detailed intelligence on "everything that is going on." If G-2 secured this information, it must be in part from OPC and would reveal operational details of activities behind the Curtain which would be bad from the security point of view to say nothing of other objections;

c. A paper which ADD(P) now has on his desk (en route to OPC) prepared by [ ] in reply to a complaint made by General Collins concerning OPC activities. The complaint was believed to be inspired by General McClure;

d. A McClure paper that accused us of being derelict concerning NSG 26. [ ] has details;

e. A paper sent to [ ] which has caused considerable confusion in the field. [ ] has details.

3. DCI is considering discussing this problem with General Marshall, but ADD(P) considers this may be premature. In any event ADD(P) requires a draft of a memorandum which could be utilized by DCI in considering and discussing this problem. DCI deadline on
